INTRODUCTION

To enable the school network to prepare for the History of Québec and Canada uniform examination to be administered as of 2023, the Ministère de l'Éducation will be providing a complementary examination in June 2022.

This document contains information concerning the complementary examination, which is designed to evaluate the learning associated with the evaluation criteria Appropriate use of knowledge, Coherent representation of a period in the history of Québec and Canada and Rigour of the interpretation.

This examination is based on the Framework for the Evaluation of Learning and the History of Québec and Canada program. In addition, the Ministère enlists teachers and education consultants representing different schools to contribute to the development of each examination.

The complementary examination is optional. Educational institutions that choose to use it must observe the official schedule for the examination session and ensure that it is administered without a break and in its entirety.

Information Specific to the June 2022 Complementary Examination

The examination is in line with the Learning to Be Prioritized at the Secondary Level for the 2021-2022 School Year in the Context of the Pandemic.

Information on the historical knowledge that could be used in the June 2022 complementary examination is provided in Section 1.1 of this document.

1. CONTENT AND STRUCTURE

1.1 Parts of the complementary examination

The examination has 23 questions and deals with the program content relating to the following four periods and social phenomena:

PERIOD	SOCIAL PHENOMENON
1840-1896	The formation of the Canadian federal system
1896-1945	Nationalisms and the autonomy of Canada
1945-1980	The modernization of Québec and the Quiet Revolution
From 1980 to our times	Societal choices in contemporary Québec

The historical knowledge that could be used in the June 2022 complementary examination is in line with the Learning to Be Prioritized at the Secondary Level for the 2021-2022 School Year in the Context of the Pandemic. Accordingly, this examination may address any historical knowledge relating to the first three periods and social phenomena presented in the table. With respect to the final period and social phenomenon, the knowledge that could be used is that which allows for the construction of the concepts of Civil society, Neo-liberalism and Sovereignism, namely:

- Redefinition of the state's role
- Indigenous rights
- Globalization of the economy
- Québec's political status
- Gender equality
- Language issue

The examination is divided into three parts.

Part A:

- This part consists of 21 questions associated with the evaluation criterion Appropriate use of knowledge.

Note

Owing to the introduction of a scannable answer sheet in the June 2023 uniform examination, the questions on the intellectual operation Situate in time and space are now multiple-choice questions. Examples are provided in the document Explanations Regarding the Evaluation Tools, available on a secure Ministère website.

- The questions evaluate the student's ability to perform intellectual operations. They are grouped according to the 4 periods and social phenomena, which are presented in chronological order.

Part B:

- This part consists of 1 question associated with the evaluation criterion Coherent representation of a period in the history of Québec and Canada.
- The question evaluates the student's ability to produce a description.

Part C:

- This part consists of 1 question associated with the evaluation criterion Rigour of the interpretation.
- The question evaluates the student's ability to develop an explanation.

The table below presents the distribution of questions and the marks allocated for each part of the complementary examination.

PERIOD/SOCIAL PHENOMENON PART	1840-1896 THE FORMATION OF THE CANADIAN FEDERAL SYSTEM	1896-1945 NATIONALISMS AND THE AUTONOMY OF CANADA	1945-1980 THE MODERNIZATION OF QUÉBEC AND THE QUIET REVOLUTION	FROM 1980 TO OUR TIMES SOCIETAL CHOICES IN CONTEMPORARY QUÉBEC	TOTAL
PART A	5 or 6 questions 9 to 14 marks	5 or 6 questions 9 to 14 marks	5 or 6 questions 9 to 14 marks	4 or 5 questions 7 to 12 marks	21 questions 44 marks
PART B	1 question on one of the periods 8 marks				1 question 8 marks
PART C	1 question on one of the social phenomena ¹ 8 marks				1 question 8 marks
					23 questions 60 marks

1. The question in Part C does not relate to the same period/social phenomenon as the question in Part B.

1.1.1 Part A

The 21 questions in Part A are associated with the evaluation criterion Appropriate use of knowledge. They evaluate the student's ability to perform intellectual operations.

The table below presents the intellectual operations and the behaviours expected of the student. It also indicates the number of marks allocated for each of the operations.

INTELLECTUAL OPERATIONS	EXPECTED BEHAVIOURS	NUMBER OF MARKS
Situate in time and space	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The student must place facts or events in chronological order, taking into account chronological reference points. • The student must place facts or events on a timeline. • The student must classify facts or events according to whether they come before or after a chronological reference point. • The student must identify the location of a geographical feature, a fact, an event or a territory on a map. 	1 or 2

1.1.2 Part B

The question in Part B is associated with the evaluation criterion Coherent representation of a period in the history of Québec and Canada. It evaluates the student's ability to produce a description highlighting cultural, economic, political, social and territorial elements of part or all of a period in the history of Québec and Canada.

The table below presents the observable elements associated with the evaluation of a description. Details on the observable elements are provided in the column outlining the expected behaviours.

OBSERVABLE ELEMENTS	EXPECTED BEHAVIOURS
Identifies the topic of the description	The student must identify the topic of the description. To do this, the student must identify the historical phenomenon (e.g. a fact, event, period, situation or set of circumstances) to be described in relation to part or all of a period in the history of Québec and Canada.
Provides details on connected elements	The student must provide details on the connected elements related to the topic of the description. To do this, the student must identify facts that are interrelated.

1.1.3 Part C

The question in Part C is associated with the evaluation criterion Rigour of the interpretation. It evaluates the student's ability to develop an explanation highlighting major cultural, economic, political, social and territorial changes relating to a social phenomenon.

The table below presents the observable elements associated with the evaluation of an explanation. Details on the observable elements are provided in the column outlining the expected behaviours.

OBSERVABLE ELEMENTS	EXPECTED BEHAVIOURS
Indicates the elements of the answer	The student must indicate the elements of the answer. To do this, the student must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify causes and consequences or <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify changes and continuities
Supports the elements of the answer with facts	The student must support the elements of the answer with facts. To do this, the student must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify facts that illustrate them, such as manifestations, events, actions or statistical data or <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify facts that explain them

1.2 Examination booklets

The complementary examination consists of the following materials:

- the Question Booklet
- the Answer Booklet
- the Document File
- the Marking Guide (for teachers)

1.3 Role of the documents in the Document File

The Document File is divided into three parts that correspond to the different parts of the complementary examination. The Document File consists of written or visual historical documents, writings by historians, diagrams, tables, illustrations, maps and timelines. The following tables identify and describe the role played by the documents in each part.

Description of the role of the documents for the questions in Part A

The documents relating to Part A are presented by period and social phenomenon in the Document File. It is possible that the same document may be used to answer more than one question within a given period and social phenomenon in Part A. It is important that the student take this into account when analyzing the documents.

ROLE	DESCRIPTION
The document suggests avenues for answering the question.	The document guides the student in developing the answer by providing reference points in space and time, for example. The document may or may not be mentioned in the question.
The document places the question in context.	The document guides the student in developing the answer by indicating the historical context referred to in the question. The document may or may not be mentioned in the question.
The document is part of the question.	The document provides the student with information required for answering the question. The document is mentioned in the question.
The document constitutes the answer to the question.	The document provides information that enables the student to select it as the answer to the question. The expected answer consists of one or more document numbers. The document is not mentioned in the question.

Description of the role of the documents for the question in Part B

To answer the question in Part B, the student must select from the corresponding part of the Document File only those documents that relate to the period and territory addressed by the question. The student is provided with instructions to this effect.

ROLE	DESCRIPTION
The documents contribute to the production of a description.	The documents guide the student in determining the topic of the description. or The documents enable the student to provide details on the connected elements related to the topic of the description.

Description of the role of the documents for the question in Part C

To answer the question in Part C, the student may use all of the documents in the corresponding part of the Document File.

ROLE	DESCRIPTION
The documents contribute to the development of an explanation.	The documents guide the student in establishing the elements of the answer. or The documents enable the student to illustrate or explain the elements of the answer (depending on what the instructions specify).

1.4 Examination requirements

The complementary examination requires that the student:

- master the historical knowledge and concepts necessary to analyze the documents and answer the questions
- analyze and use various kinds of documents appropriately
- perform intellectual operations
- produce a description highlighting cultural, economic, political, social and territorial elements of part or all of a period in the history of Québec and Canada
- develop an explanation highlighting major cultural, economic, political, social and territorial changes relating to a social phenomenon
- provide complete, clear answers that present accurate information

2. CONDITIONS FOR ADMINISTERING THE EXAMINATION

In the interests of equity and justice, the examination must be administered under the same conditions to all students across Québec. It is thus forbidden for anyone to help students in any way, for example by clarifying a question or rewording instructions. Examinations in which a teacher or any other school staff member is deemed to have overstepped the boundaries of their role may be declared invalid by the Ministère.

It is forbidden to disclose any information about the content of a ministerial examination to anyone who is not directly involved in its administration, or to distribute any examination document, in whole or in part, at any time or by any means whatsoever, including social media.

2.1 Examination date

The date on which educational institutions can begin to administer the complementary examination is set out in the official schedule for the corresponding examination session.

2.2 Duration

The time allotted to this examination in the official schedule is 3 hours. According to the Administrative Guide for the Certification of Studies and Management of Ministerial Examinations \(2015 edition\), an additional period of 15 minutes must be granted if it is required.

2.3 Unauthorized materials

During the examination, students may not use any reference documents (atlases, dictionaries, textbooks, notes, workbooks, etc.) or digital tools.

In addition, students are strictly forbidden to have in their possession any digital device (smartphone, wireless headphones or earbuds, smartwatch, etc.) that can be used to communicate, access the Internet, translate text, or create, save or consult data.

Any student who is caught in possession of unauthorized materials during the examination will be expelled from the examination room for cheating and will receive a mark of 0% on the examination. This rule applies even if a student who is found in possession of a digital device is not using the device or has turned it off.

2.4 Adaptation measures

Measures that adapt the conditions for administering ministerial examinations may be taken to enable students with specific needs to demonstrate their learning. For further information on the implementation of these measures, please refer to the documents made available to schools by the Direction de la sanction des études.

3. MARKING PROCEDURES

3.1 Responsibility for marking the examination

Educational institutions are responsible for marking all three parts of the examination in accordance with the procedures set out by the Ministère in the Marking Guide.

3.2 Marking tools

The Marking Guide contains an answer key for all three parts (A, B and C) of the examination, as well as an explanation of the marking procedure. In addition, there are separate rubrics for Part B and Part C.

It should be noted that forming marking committees contributes to a common understanding of the marking procedures.

4. STUDENT'S RESULT ON THE COMPLEMENTARY EXAMINATION

The 21 questions in Part A are worth a total of 44 marks. Each question is worth 1 mark, 2 marks or 3 marks. The questions in Part B and Part C are worth 8 marks each.

The examination is marked out of 60.

5. SUBJECT MARK AND PASS MARK

Educational institutions are responsible for determining how the subject mark is calculated. They may decide whether or not the student's mark on the complementary examination will be taken into account in determining the final mark.

The Framework for the Evaluation of Learning provides guidelines for determining the subject mark, which will be indicated in the provincial report card. A student with a subject mark of at least 60% will be granted the credits for the program.
