1. INTRODUCTION

This definition of the domain for summative evaluation describes and classifies the essential and representative elements of the Sociovocational Integration Services program and, more specifically, of the course entitled Adapting to Work (SVI-1024-1). It is based on the program’s organization guide, but should by no means replace the guide itself. It takes into account the diversity of local organizations and the implementation of local projects, while ensuring that all summative evaluation instruments are consistent with the overall program. It is an essential tool for developing summative evaluations that are in line with instructional planning.

The definition of the domain for summative evaluation is used to prepare examinations that are valid from one version to another, from year to year, and from one school board to another, taking into account the division of responsibilities shared by the Ministère de l'Éducation, du Loisir et du Sport and the school boards.
2. PROGRAM ORIENTATIONS AND CONSEQUENCES FOR SUMMATIVE EVALUATION

<tr>

<th>Consequences</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. “Sociovocational integration involves every dimension of the students,”* including physical, intellectual, emotional, spiritual and social dimensions. Education must target the whole person, including personal, career and social experience and goals.</td>
<td>1. This definition of the domain for summative evaluation takes only cognitive skills into account; socioaffective skills are dealt with by means of formative evaluation.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. “Sociovocational integration enables students to learn to learn,”* i.e. to know their own personal way of learning, realize their intellectual potential, facilitate their personal and social development and vocational integration, interact with their environment and broaden their vision of the world.</td>
<td>2. The evaluation should verify the students’ ability to use their critical judgment, generalize their learning, seek meaning in their experiences and learning, solve problems and integrate new information.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. “Sociovocational integration permits students to become familiar with and to make use of the social, political and economic environment,”* i.e. to promote and use the natural network of relationships and the environment.</td>
<td>3. The evaluation should verify the students’ familiarity with their environment at the end of the course and their ability to use the available resources.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. “Sociovocational integration is an ongoing, permanent process”* in a job market in which people are constantly evolving.</td>
<td>4. Taking into account the local situation, the evaluation should verify the level of correspondence between, on the one hand, the students’ ability to reproduce and transfer their learning without help and, on the other hand, their choice of vocational integration training suited to their preferences, their abilities and their continuing education and training needs.</td>

3. COURSE CONTENT

3.1 Theme

- Adaptation to work
  - Abilities and difficulties in adapting to new situations
  - Ways of improving their behaviour in situations requiring adaptation

3.2 Skill

- Understanding

  Identifying their abilities and difficulties in adapting to new situations, and explaining their answer

  Identifying ways of improving their behaviour in situations requiring adaptation, and giving reasons for their choices

5. EXPLANATION OF THE CONTENT AND WEIGHTING

The expected outcome for course SVI-1024-1 involves a theme and skill that can be weighted according to their complexity.

The theme and skill for summative evaluation have been selected from among those considered essential for achieving the expected outcome of the course: “adapt to the workplace and the job market.” This theme and skill have been selected and weighted in accordance with the prescribed specifications, participation criteria and second-level operational objectives.

Thus, the students come to understand how to adapt to work.

Emphasis is placed on the students’ ability to:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Content</th>
<th>Explanation of Content</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>- Identify their abilities and difficulties in adapting to new situations, and explain their answer</td>
<td>Because of: - the use of critical judgment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- Identify ways of improving their behaviour in situations requiring adaptation, and give reasons for their choices</td>
<td>Because of: - the potential for generalizing learning - the potential for transferring learning - the contribution to the process of vocational integration</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The theme and skill are weighted as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Theme</th>
<th>Skill</th>

6. OBSERVABLE BEHAVIOURS

Weighting of items

1) On the basis of the activities carried out during the course and on the basis of work-related experiences, identify:
- two abilities in adapting to new situations (5% per ability)
- two difficulties in adapting to new situations (5% per difficulty)

For each of the abilities and difficulties identified, explain their answer (5% per explanation).

Criteria:
- Appropriate abilities and difficulties identified
- Coherent explanations given

60% On the basis of the list of abilities and difficulties in adapting to new situations produced during the course, identify:
- three ways of improving their behaviour in situations requiring adaptation (10% per means)

For each of the ways identified, give reasons for their answer (10% per reason).

Criteria:
- Appropriate ways identified
- Coherent reasons given
7. DESCRIPTION OF THE EXAMINATION

7.1 Type of Examination

The examination required for the summative evaluation can be written or oral, and consists of two parts.

Part I of the examination focuses on “abilities and difficulties in adapting to new situations,” and must not exceed 30 minutes. It is administered at a time deemed appropriate by the school. Students are permitted to use course notes and other information.

Part II of the examination focuses on “ways of improving their behaviour in situations requiring adaptation,” and must not exceed 30 minutes. It is administered at the end of the course. Students are permitted to use course notes, the list of abilities and difficulties identified during the course and other information.

It may be possible to develop more than one item per observable behaviour. In this case, the marks awarded can be divided among the items, provided that the relative weight of the observable behaviour is taken into account.

7.2 Partnership

Partners inside or outside the school may participate in the summative evaluation process.

7.3 Type of Result

The result obtained may be expressed as a “pass” or “fail,” or as a mark. The pass mark is set at 60% for the entire examination. The results must be transmitted in accordance with the rules set out in the Administrative Manual for the Certification of Studies in General Education for Adults and in Vocational Training.
